

Pencil

I have not done too many physical drawings in collage as the majority of them were digital. These are some sketches i did for a character design for an assignment,

We started learning about figure sketches and how to sketch people in different poses, these are a few that i did.

